Vacancies | Book Fair | Eid

TONIGHT!!

I hope to see as many of you as possible at the Summer Fair this evening. The doors open at 5pm and we will be closing with the raffle at 6.45pm.

A huge thank-you-in-advance to the PTA for their amazing organisation and planning - it really is a lot of work, but all worth it I'm sure you'll agree.

My thanks to all the parents, friends, ex-pupils and staff who are helping out on the stalls - the fair couldn't run without these volunteers so we are very grateful.

Just a couple of reminders: please bring small change and five pound notes if possible. Keeping the stalls stocked with change is one of the biggest jobs of the fair so we appreciate you helping with this! Also, just a reminder, if it rains (let's hope it doesn't), the Fair will be moved inside. We will operate a one way system as I explained last week. Please follow and respect the directions from school staff advising you where to go.

And finally.....have a wonderful time!

Language of the Half Term

Sign Language

Our focus language for this half term is Sign Language. We use sign language for many of our children in school and everybody joins in with signing our assembly songs as well as learning key signs for special events such as Christmas. We use Makaton in school; if you would like further information, please follow this link.

Thursday 22nd to Wednesday
28th June

The Book Fair will continue to be held in the library after school next week, until Wednesday. Please come and have a browse with our child. Any books sold will help raise money for more books in our libraries.

Eid al Adha

We will authorise ONE day's absence for Eid next week. If you will be celebrating Eid, please let us know whether your child will be absent on Wednesday or Thursday, by emailing us on eid@etchells.stockport.sch.uk. Doing this will ensure we are not phoning you on the day to find out where your child is. Happy celebrations to all our families marking this occasion.

On Thursday this week the children met their new teachers and visited their classroom for September. Our next transition morning will be taking place on Monday.

Kind regards,

Cathy Beddows and the Etchells staff
