

Cut out each triangle separately then write one multiplication fact on each as in the example

As you cover one corner you are left with a calculation showing, for which the hidden number is the answer. The children love to test 'you' on these so you could make deliberate errors to see if they will correct you! Keep it fun!